CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR MEMBERS TO SERVE ON THE SPECIALIST COMMITTEE ON COMPANY LAW

Section 191 of the new Companies Act, No.71 of 2008 ("the Act"), as amended, establishes a Specialist Committee on Company Law (SCCL) which must advise the Minister on any matter relating to company law or policy, or the Commissioner of the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission on the management of the Commission's resources. The Minister may assign specific powers to the members of the SCCL for the purposes of performing any function contemplated in section 191(1) of the Act.

In terms of the provisions of section 192 of the Act, the Minister of Trade and Industry, Mr Parks Tau, hereby calls for nominations for the appointment of members, on a part-time basis, for the Specialist Committee on Company Law (SCCL): consisting of:

- Not more than eight (8) persons who are independent from the Companies and Intellectual Commission to be appointed by the Minister.
- Not more than two (2) senior employees of the Commissioner of the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission, designated by the Commissioner of the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission.

To be appointed or designated as a member of the SCCL in terms of section 192 of the Act, a person must be fit and proper person, have appropriate expertise or experience and have the ability to perform effectively as a member of the SCCL.

In order to meet the requirements of the Act, the Minister must select a candidate with qualifications, knowledge and experience necessary to further the functions of the SCCL. Preference will be given to candidates with expertise in Company Law and the ability to advise on Company Law and policy.

A person may not be a member of the SCCL if such a person acts in such a way that is inconsistent with section 192(1)(a) of the Act, expose themselves to any situation in which the risk of a conflict may arise between their responsibilities and any personal financial interest, use their position or any information entrusted to them to enrich themselves, improperly benefit any other person, has a personal or financial interest in any matter on which the committee gives advice and must disclose that interest and withdraw from the proceedings of the SCCL when that matter is discussed.

Term of office: Each member of the SCCL will serve for a term of five (5) years, which term will be effective from the date on which the Minister provides.

The successful candidate will be remunerated according to the remuneration rates as determined and published by the National Treasury.
